MACUL RECOGNIZES FOUR MICHIGAN EDUCATORS FOR IMPROVING EDUCATION THROUGH THE USE OF TECHNOLOGY

Lansing (MI), March 5, 2019 – The Michigan Association for Computer Users in Learning (MACUL) has named the recipients of its 2019 MACUL Digital Leader Award, MACUL Technology Using Teacher Award, President’s Award and the Frank Miracola 21Things Educational Excellence Award. The awards recognize and honor MACUL members who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in the use of technology to improve education. MACUL will honor winners during its annual conference on March 20-22, 2019 at Cobo Center in Detroit.

MACUL named Kristina Martin, Macomb ISD, as the winner of Digital Leadership Award and Jennifer Bond, Walled Lake Consolidated Schools as the winner of Technology Using Teacher Award.

Chris Burnett, Mount Clemens Community Schools and Jim Wenzloff, educational technology consultant, were named the recipients of the President’s Award for their outstanding commitment to support excellence in education here in Michigan.

MACUL, the REMC Association of Michigan (REMCAM) and Michigan Virtual named Daryl Mcleese, Paw Paw Public Schools, as the recipient of the Frank Miracola 21Things Educational Excellence award.

In addition to this recognition at the MACUL Conference, the award winners will receive gifts on behalf of several education technology companies, MACUL, ISTE (International Society of Technology in Education), REMCAM and Michigan Virtual.

Founded in 1975, MACUL is a 26,000 member non-profit organization dedicated to bringing educators from all levels together to ignite learning through meaningful collaboration and innovation. Please visit www.macul.org for more information about MACUL initiatives.
